Gregg-Merrick Wedding.

A quiet and pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erin Gregg, ten miles southeast of town last evening when their daughter Rosa was married to Arthur Merrick of Maxwell, by Rev. W. S. Porter.

The ceremony took place at 8:30 and was witnessed by thirty-five friends and relatives. The bride wore white messaline with timings of point lace and was unattended. A sumptuous wedding supper was served after the ceremony and the bridal party left by auto for Kearney from where they will take the train and visit in several large cities of the east.

Both are well and favorably known and deserve all the happiness that life holds. The groom is a successful merchant of Maxwell and the bride was one of the most efficient country school teachers.

Jacob J. Myers Passes Away.

Jacob J. Myers, a pioneer citizen of this city, passed to the great beyond at 10:40 Wednesday evening. Death was due to ailments customary to advanced years, although until recently Mr. Myers was unusually active for a man of his years and devoted his time to his large garden plot.

For a couple of weeks his condition had been critical and relatives were summoned. His last hours were cheered by the administration of a loving family and kind friends.

Mr. Myers was one of the most respected and charitable men of the city and a staunch member of the Seventh Day Adventist church. He belonged to the G. A. R. having served his time in the army.

Jacob J. Myers was born in New York, July 3, 1832, and February 15, 1857, was married to Sarah Jane Sevey, who still survives him. To this union six children were born, four of whom are living. They are Eugene, of Ft. Worth, Texas, W. R. of Colorado, Mrs. Beens, of Cozad, and Mrs. Thos. Rowley, of this city. There are also seventeen grand children and seven great grand children.

The deceased was a veteran of the civil war, having seen service in Co. H Second N. Y. Cavalry.

He came to Nebraska in 1871 and for more than a quarter of a century had resided in or near the city.

The funeral will be held from the residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

A Permanent Shape

That's What Every Man Wants in His Fall Suit.

Kirschbaum Clothes.

Copyright, 1912. A. B. Kirschbaum Co.

THAT'S what every man gets who buys his clothes here. We know the importance to you of style, fit, finish and fabric.

But we also know that these qualities won't stay by you if the clothes don't keep their shape. That's why we are offering you

Kirschbaum Clothes

Every yard of fabric that goes into a Kirschbaum suit (and it is absolutely "All-Wool") is shrunk and reshunk. The expensive London Cold-Water Process is used, which is the only method that insures thorough shrinking.

The fabric is run between blankets in clean, cold water until every part of the cloth is thoroughly and evenly wet. It is kept in this condition until there's no shrink left! Ask the women folk at home about it. They will tell you it is no wonder that these keep their shape. Shape-keeping is just one of many qualities you get when you purchase a Kirschbaum fall suit. Every garment is hand tailored, guaranteed "All-Wool" fabric and cut in style above criticism. The Kirschbaum guaranty given with every suit.

$15, $18, $20 and $25 Suits.

DIXON, The Jeweler.

A number of young people of the city are planning to attend a social dance to-morrow evening at the Johnson home nine miles from town.

Detroit Vapor Stoves at half price at Hershey's, corner 5th and Locust, Phone 15.

The social given at the Mc Williams home Tuesday afternoon by the ladies of St. Patrick's Alter Society was a very successful one and the ladies appreciate the patronage given them.

Chic New Styles at the Parlor millinery for early fall wear.

Deputy Sheriff Watts found two prairie chickens in the possession of Lem Bailey and E. H. Burns, before the season opened the last of last week. They were fined $16.50.

C. E. King's large field of wheat has been threshed and it yielded well. The average was better than 23 bushels per acre. Portions threshed as high as 30 bushels and some as low as 17. Mr. King raised over 500 acres.—Sutherland Free Lance.

The third case of children getting hold of poison has been called to our attention, all three cases occurring in the short space of about six weeks. The last case was at the home of F. W. Hackbarth, living south of Hershey. His five year old daughter was playing in the barn Monday, presumably hunting birds eggs or something near the roof when she ran across a bottle of strychnine. She drank some of the contents, and then ran to the house and told her mother, who immediately called in medical aid. When the doctor arrived he administered a strong emetic, and this probably saved the child's life. At this writing the child is getting on nicely.—Hershey Times.

Announcement

I herewith announce my candidacy for county commissioner on the republican ticket and ask the support of all citizens and pledge to conduct the county affairs in an economical and business way if elected.
